Spreading The Word To Our Community

It was He who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

Father's Glory Worship Team

Susan Shaw
Father's Glory Worship Team Leader

Mariah Swan: drums
Scott Swan: bass guitar
Dixie Swan: vocals

Susan Shaw: To me, worship means adoring our God, our Creator, our Savior and lifting Him up to the highest place. For me, singing and playing the guitar is a natural way to express this adoration. To have the opportunity to lead others in the worship of our God is truly an honor. It is important for me that worship is always full of love, joy, and freedom – it is never a chore but rather a delight to worship our God!

Dixie Swan: Years ago, I thought that 'worship' was just singing the songs led by a song leader. We'd sing the first, second, and third verses of a song; sort of a "Sing Along" atmosphere which really did not mean much. Now, worship is so vital to me. I have a NEED to worship. Why? My relationship with my Creator, Savior, Father, Friend, and Lover is so much more intimate. I realize who HE is, and who I am in His Kingdom. Just thinking of Him fills me with a desire to praise Him and worship Him. He is everything! I owe it all to Him. I am His. He is worthy of my surrender in worship. Singing along is not enough anymore. I want to give Him more. I give Him me.

Scott Swan: For me, playing music with the worship team has been a wonderful thing. At times in my life I believe it has actually kept me coming to church, and now learning and playing music is been a big part of life. I am still learning and have much more to learn about worship and what it means to be part of a team that leads people to enter into worship and entering in myself. I just try not to complicate things and keep it simple. It is a cool time when God is very present and moving in the hearts of His people and changing lives.

Mariah Swan: Hallelujah!! What an awesome God we worship!! It is truly an honor to be a part of the worship team. God has blessed me abundantly through music and the instruments He has given me the knowledge to play. He has faithfully shown up and been my hands and feet, and for that I am ever so thankful!! It is an awesome sight to behold as we all at FGM make a joyful noise unto the Lord. We have had an unbelievable journey thus far and I'm looking forward to where He takes us and how He stretches us next. We are truly an audience of One!!
